

I refer to your letter of 21 January seeking information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. My responses to the six requests you made are set out below.

1. The address of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] for electoral purposes prior to July 2006.

This information which you seek is personal data. I am unable to take a decision on whether I should disclose it until I have ascertained the attitude of [REDACTED]. I have written to them and will revert to you as soon as I have had an opportunity to consider any response received. The exemption set out in section 40 of the 2000 Act is in point.

2. The grounds, if any, submitted in applying to be registered at [REDACTED] in August 2006.

I do not hold information of the description specified in your request.

3. The address of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] for electoral purposes in their application forms in January 2008.

[REDACTED] – the information you seek is held by me with a view to its publication on or about 1 March in the list of additions to the electoral register. You will then be entitled to inspect it free of charge in accordance with regulation 43 of the 2001 Regulations. At present I regard the information as personal data and feel unable to reach a decision on whether or not to make it available to you without first ascertaining the views of [REDACTED]. In view of the short period of time that will elapse before the information becomes available to you by other means I believe it is reasonable in all the circumstances to withhold the information until 1 March when you will be able to exercise your statutory right of inspection. The exemptions set out in sections 21, 22 and 40 of the 2000 Act are in point.

[REDACTED] – I do not hold information of the description specified in your request.

4. The grounds, if any, submitted for change of address for electoral purposes in January 2008.

I do not hold information of the description specified in your request.

5. Copies of all correspondence between the above named and the Electoral Office re the above.

I enclose the following documents –

- copy letter to [REDACTED] dated 11 January 2008
- copy letter to [REDACTED] dated 16 January 2008
- copy letter to [REDACTED] dated 16 January 2008.

Please note that the addresses have been redacted for the reasons explained above.

6. Details of any dates of occupancy of the properties by the above named and dates when the properties were assessed by the Valuation Office for rates assessment.

I do not hold information of the description specified in your request.

Yours faithfully,
