

THE ELECTORAL OFFICE FOR NORTHERN IRELAND

Assistant Chief Electoral Officer: E J Butler

3rd Floor St Anne's House 15 Church Street BELFAST BT1 1ER

RELOCATION OF BALLYMONEY AREA OFFICE TO BALLYMENA

13 April 2006

For a number of years the Electoral Office has been looking for alternative accommodation in order to relocate the Area Office currently at Linenhall Street, Ballymoney. This was necessary because the premises are not able to be accessed by persons with certain physical disabilities and also the current office does not completely meet our current business needs.

With effect from 1 June 2006, this Area Office will move to 124 Broughshane Street, Ballymena. This is a modern office, located on the first floor of a new building at the rear of the Fairhill Centre. There is ample parking close by and it is serviced by a lift.

The new location is also more central and convenient for the full geographical area which it serves: the two Parliamentary Constituencies of Mid Ulster and North Antrim and the Council Areas of Ballymena, Ballymoney, Cookstown, Magherafelt, Moyle and parts of Dungannon. The Area Electoral Officer and her staff will continue to offer all the range of services to the public and politicians from the new Ballymena office and the telephone number will continue to be the central number for all EONI offices – 028 9044 6688.
